

NAME: _____ Teacher: _____ PD. _____

UNIT: PERSUASIVE RESEARCH PROJECT AND PRESENTATION

VIDEO CLIPS FOR SUCCESSFUL ONLINE RESEARCHING

VIDEO TITLE: Differences Between Databases and Web Sites - Length: 3:40

Identify why we have to evaluate web pages:

VIDEO TITLE: Evaluating Web Pages - Length: 12:06

1. What are the 5 categories of questions we can ask about web pages when evaluating them?

2. What are the characteristics we want to have in a web page used for research? Name three.

3. On a web page, the Author MUST be a _____.

4. If there is NO author, then you must find a _____.

5. To find out if the author/organization is an expert or knowledgeable in the topic the web page is about, you must find what link and read what? _____

6. What might it mean if a web page is not well organized, has spelling or grammatical errors and links that don't work? _____

7. The Title of the Web Page field in a web citation is the title of the web page you want to _____
_____?

8. What words or symbols could you find in a Web Site address (URL) that would indicate it was a personal web page? _____

9. The Title of the Web Site field in a citation is the title of the _____ of the Web site your web page is a part of.